Father Horrigan, I do not intend to invest it with any of the airs of a book, but merely to say a few words of explanation that may insure a more favorable reception for this new wayfarer in the literary world. The publication of the lecture is an answer to a request that seemed to me to indicate the wish of the people of St. Louis Bertrand's congregation. That kind words in similar strain came from distant friends is an encouragement cordially appreciated; but the manuscript would not have seen the light had it not been for the desire, so affectionately expressed, by those before whom the lecture was delivered.
