

The Farmers Monthly Visitor Volume 12, nos. 1-10

By Isaac Hill

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 236 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.5in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1852 edition. Excerpt: . . . These were set when the seed of the nursery was sown, four years ago, some of which are in fruit the present year. Your committee were so much gratified and instructed by the manner in which Mr. Saunderson manages his whole farm operations, that we have taken the liberty to subjoin the following statement of Mr. Saunderson in a private letter to the chairman. Though our place was not entered for a premium, yet, by your request, we forward you a statement of the manner in which we manage our farming operations. We improve 100 acres of land---40 in mowing and tillage, and 00 in pasture. To renovate and improve the pasturing, we have adopted a custom, which, if continued, will, we think, tend greatly to improve that part of the farm. This is to plow them once in five years, roll and harrow...

READ ONLINE

[ 1 MB ]

Reviews

It becomes an incredible publication that we actually have at any time read. It is one of the most incredible book i actually have go through. I am just delighted to tell you that this is actually the finest pdf i actually have read through within my personal life and might be he finest publication for actually.

-- Prof. Hilma Robel

Absolutely one of the better ebook We have ever study. it had been writtern quite completely and valuable. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

-- Carol Lehner II